THE 1938 MIS

KODEED

Your high school days are nearly over, but as great dramas are preserved on film, so the epic of your high school life is immortalized in picture and prose.

These are candid glimpses into your past—stills from the great moving picture that is your school life. They are yours to keep, to cherish as the memories of the days when your interests were focused on receiving a broad education, participating in purposeful activities, and making undyng friendships.

You, as an underdeveloped freshman, a developing sophomore, an enlarging junior, or a senior in highlight, have a leading role in this ever memorable scene—Mishawaka High School in Action.

Proofs OF FRIENDSHIPS WON,

YOU SAW

Quarterback Auburn Herron block out interference, as George Fern, fullback, reversed over Central's end for a gain, during the high school football classic of the Middle West, which was played between our Cavemen and South Bend Central's Bears in the stadium of Notre Dame University.

YOU KNOW

James Bock and Harold Coleman, the two active seniors who were chosen in recognition of scholarship and outstanding qualities of leadership and character as our student representatives to be guests of the South Bend Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon meetings.

ACHIEVEMENTS GAINED

that day of the first semester when the girls were collecting autographs, this vivacious freshman, Eleanor Sebetich, won the title, Queen of Friendship, by garnering 403 signatures. Sparkling and winsome, she is the picture of friendliness.

YOU CHOSE

by student ballot, Dorothy Jane Wiley and Thomas O'Dell to reign as Miss Kodeed and King Kodeed. They were crowned at one of the matinee dances. Runners-up for these honors were Mary Matilda Gillis, Grace Reed, Eugene Hull, and Richard Lenhard.

PRODUCTION MANAGERS

MR. EMMONS

Behind the scenes is Mr. P. C. Emmons, superintendent, whose clear vision projects itself into the Mishawaka Public Schools. A light of inspiration, of service, and cooperation that he keeps forever shining, seems to reflect itself in the genial assistance he receives from teachers, office technicians, and the Board of Education.

MR. KERN

Positive, never negative, is Mr. Charles H. Kern, our principal, in his desire for the advancement of every student to new ideals and higher standards. As the production manager of our school, he is forever seeking the best methods of fulfilling his desire.

MISS CRAVENS

Always ready, willing, and able to help high school girls solve their problems is Miss Jean Cravens, who holds the important position of Dean of Girls. She graciously directs the hall guides, receives big and little sisters, conducts a small employment bureau, holds conferences with the girls, and arranges instructive assemblies for them.

TECHNICIANS AND ASSISTANTS

An important branch of the technical division of our school is found in the superintendent's office. Miss Ida Betts, secretary to the Board of Education; Miss Audrey Milliken, secretary to the superintendent; and Miss Madeline Bock, clerk, are the chief technicians on location there. Assuming duties that only indirectly affect the students, they are an important part of the life that moves on daily, almost unknown to the persons outside the scenes.

Every day is a busy day in the office, for through this technical division of our school system, the official orders are sent regarding school problems and business transactions.

Focusing on efficiency, Mrs. Russell Heeter, chief technician, directs her capable assistants: Lucille Vanden Avyle, Dorothy Breunlin, Dorothy DeCloedt, Dorothy Dill, Marcella Dillavou, Anne Dorogi, Martha Landuyt, Dorothy Lehr, Dorothy Logan, Dorothy Jane McLaughlin, Mildred Spear, June Weis, Mabel Wheeler and Peggy Wilkow.

These technicians are kept busy with duties that present themselves every hour of every day. Absence and tardy slips, report cards, telephone calls, records, and interviews, are all familiar to the girls who work behind the scenes in the office.

Highlights SENIORS ON PARADE

The Class of 1938 on parade! The highlight of continuous progress through the four short years of a high school career is Commencement. Ambitious, whimsical, spirited, studious, the seniors have arrived at graduation and will leave a brilliant path for others to follow.

A long awaited, eagerly attended, and ever remembered event is the Junior-Senior Promenade.

Three hundred seniors, with heads up, look to the future, as they lead the four-year procession moving toward graduation, the completion of training in one of the four major courses of the curriculum.

Ninety-seven seniors are enrolled in the General Course. With few requirements, this course allows students to choose a large number of their subjects.

With the objective of continuing their education, eighty seniors have pursued the College Preparatory Course; and seventeen, the Pre-Engineering Course.

Sixty-six seniors look forward to positions in modern business and have developed their skill in the requisites of the commercial world.

The Vocational Department has provided special training for forty seniors who can step directly from high school into a trade.

Invaluable in many ways have been the senior class sponsors: Lester C. Dahl, head sponsor; Jean Cravens, Herbert DeCroes, Lora Duguid, and Wallace Miner.

A leader with many abilities, Harold Coleman, as president, has directed the activities of the seniors. Thomas O'Dell assisted as vice-president; Richard McHenry, secretary; and Helen Vollmer, treasurer.

Enlarging JUNIORS MARK TIME

These officers led the juniors: Thomas Abberger, president; Robert Abele, vice-president; Anna Frisoni, secretary; and Wilma Seigler, treasurer.

Enlargement! And still enlarging! From miniatures to enlargements, the juniors have passed through the "growing pains" of underclassmen and emerged life-size upperclassmen.

The Junior Class first focused its efforts on the class play, Growing Pains, by Aurania Rouverol, a delightful comedy portraying the problems of adolescence with sympathetic understanding. Miss Wilhelmina Lester presented a carefully coached cast.

And as the year ends, this class is busy planning how to turn the floodlights on the "Prom" to make it a brilliant climax for the seniors.

In Growing Pains, Henry Ferrettie and Deloris Francis, as Boy and Girl, faced the problems of youth, humorous to the sympathetic mother, Sara Gerard, and perplexing to the father, Roy Behnke.

Developing SOPHOMORES GET IN STEP

Developing! The large Sophomore Class has been exposed to two years of high school, has passed through the developer, class activities, and come out successfully.

With high enthusiasm, the sophomores presented a very entertaining class play, sold candy at the basketball tournament, and led in subscribers to the publication drives.

The Saturday Evening Ghost, by Tom Taggart, was the annual class play and concerned a wealthy American who purchased an ancestral castle in England that he might escape threatening kidnapers. The plot was intriguing, and the well-chosen cast handled the comedy very well. Miss Lola Jane Rosenberger's directing earned much praise.

Underdeveloped! But there's hope for these members of the younger generation.

Being truly modern, students of this year's Freshman Class possess a great deal of poise and assurance. Much of their nonchalance may be attributed to the aid which the Mi-Hi Guide offers.

Although we missed your picturesque greenness, we have taken you as you are, for we couldn't get along without you, Freshmen!

Flashes OF ACTION

A combination of capable coaches, talented youths, and spirited students makes any team hard to beat. These factors are all present in our athletic program.

Football, basketball, and track are the three major sports, and cross country, golf, and tennis are the secondary activities. Every year hundreds of boys enlist in these sports. Although everyone cannot be included on the teams, those not so fortunate one season are hopeful that their chance will come the next year.

For those persons not on the school teams who enjoy participating in athletics, there are intramural leagues in which everyone is welcome to play.

And so the picture of athletics at Mishawaka is complete.

SPOTLIGHT SHOWS STRONG DEFENSE IN FOOTBALL

The new floodlights, switched on at the athletic field last September for the St. Hedwige game, brilliantly opened the 1937 football season, and during the rest of the fall, football carried the current of school interest. The new lights gave the students and townspeople the opportunity to see more games than the former schedules of Saturday afternoon dates had permitted.

Mishawaka's football team of 1937 boasted one of the best defenses in the history of the school. In ten games the Maroons ran up a total of 135 points to their opponents' 89. The Cavemen broke even in their schedule by winning four games, tying two, and losing four. This was made possible under the able direction of Coach Russell Arndt, and his assistant coaches, Walter Thurston and Raymond Struck, who handled the varsity, reserves, and freshmen squads, respectively.

backs. Those players whose abilities will be missed next year are Captain Frank Canarecci's line plunging at fullback, George Meixel's kicking at halfback, Auburn Herron's blocking and punt-returning at quarterback, Tom O'Dell's field generalship, Robert Conway's blocking and scrap at right guard, Joe Acsai's size and stone-wall defensive play at left tackle, Ralph Howland's blocking at right tackle, Don Smith's blocking and rugged defense at right end, Charles Prahl's pass-catching at left end, and Glenn Fisher's ball-snapping.

The lights were initiated in the game against the St. Hedwige Lions. The Lions were a very surprised team in their opening encounter, for they were definitely trounced 52 to 0. St. Hedwige was able to make only 11 yards from scrimmage, while the Cavemen made 407. Mishawaka gained all their yardage on the ground, for not one pass was thrown.

An old score with Horace Mann of Gary was settled to the tune of 18 to 7 in the Mishawaka-Horace Mann game. Starting in the second quarter, with a pass from George Meixel to Arnold Meixel, the Cavemen set up their first marker. Scoring in both the third and fourth quarters, first on reverses and end runs, and then by a pass from George Meixel to Forrest Good, the Maroons turned back the 1936 N. I. H. S. C. champions.

On the next week-end, the Maroon team traveled to Fort Wayne to play South Side High School. Although the field was a sea of mud, the local machine oozed out a 26 to 6 victory over the Green Archers of the southern city. Using effectively the Meixel-to-Meixel passing combination and end runs, Mishawaka scored twice in the second and fourth quarters.

In an evening game, Mishawaka met and lost to the best team in northern Indiana, Washington High of South Bend. Although they played a dogged game and refused to give up, the Cavemen were unable to cope with the precision-like football of a team destined to be a champion. Too many laterals and accurate passes by Washington caused the defeat of Mishawaka, 31 to 0.

Still mindful of their first defeat the week before, the Maroons out-played a scrappy but green Goshen team to the tune of 19 to 6. A kick blocked by Forrest Good and recovered by Ralph Howland over the Redskin goal accounted for the first touchdown. A pass from Ed Gray to Forrest Good secured a second, and a run by Frank Canarecci tallied a third marker.

Each team battling for a conference boost by defeating the other, the Mishawaka-Elkhart game was a deadlock, although Mishawaka claimed a moral victory. Early in the second quarter, the Cavemen ran the "perfect play" and scored from the middle of the field. In the same quarter an attempted punt was fumbled, and the Blazers recovered over our goal line, knotting the score with a good kick for the extra point.

Out-scored by Central of South Bend, but definitely not out-classed, the Cavemen made goal line stands, completed passes, and gained yardage, all in vain. Penalties and wear from pushing heavier men around both contributed to slow up the Cavemen enough to keep them from scoring. The Maroons came out on the short end of a 13 to 0 defeat.

No scoring punch and a lax moment in pass defense gave the Michigan City gridmen the chance they needed to eliminate Mishawaka from the N. I. H. S. C. race. Despite the fact that the Maroons played a great defensive game and threatened time and again, the pay-off was a 7 to 0 win for Michigan City.

A team of LaPorte sophomores, that had acquired plenty of experience during the season, met and turned back a traveling Caveman outfit 7 to 0 in a long and gruelling battle. The Maroons were still lacking in scoring punch.

When the time for the Mishawaka-Riley game had rolled around, so had winter. The battle was fought on a gridiron blanketed with snow. The Cavemen wore under-flannels and gloves. The snow made no difference to the players, for it was a true Mishawaka-Riley game, hard-fought, brisk, and no quarter.

A week of practice in which to develop a scoring punch, paid dividends in the first quarter of the Riley game. Mishawaka had reason to be proud of the team that left the field after a stiff fight against the conference champions. The underclassmen, working shoulder to shoulder with inspired seniors, moulded a team which set Riley back on its heels. A long drive and a run-off punt formation gave Riley the tying score of 13 to 13.

Throughout the season, the Mishawaka line was outstanding on defense. Those boys who held the line were Forrest Good, Don Smith, Joe Acsai, Walter Jasiewicz, Andrew Mickels, Robert Conway, Joe Gall, Charles Prahl, Frank Barrett, Bernard Hughes, Ralph Howland, Justin Arata, and Herbert MacDonald. The boys who backed up the line were George and Arnold Meixel, Frank Canarecci, George Fern, Ed Gray, Maurice DeMeyer, Jay Gibson, Auburn Herron, and Tom O'Dell.

To the Mishawaka High School team of 1938 the graduating members of the team of 1937 wish all the luck in the world and pass on to them the tradition of Mishawaka High School football, — that of never being licked until the last whistle blows.

Reserves and Freshmen Gain Experience

In addition to the varsity schedule, the reserve squad played games with the reserves of South Bend and Niles. A high percentage of these games ended with the Maroon junior unit on top.

Those freshmen who hope to play in years to come with the varsity ball club were given experience under fire in games with freshmen of other schools. Packing plenty of weight and already showing tendencies of true Caveman fight, they also won many of their games.

NO STARS BUT GOOD TEAMWORK IN BASKETBALL

As George Miukluk tries a free throw, watchful teammates wait for the ball to fall through the net.

Mr. Raymond "Dutch" Struck, new to M. H. S. this year, took up the duties of coaching our basketball team with a squad punctured by graduation, which had little height, and which was destined to be dogged by injuries. Yet he shook together not only a squad of game fighters, who won half of their games, but also one that showed the teamwork and finesse of a well coached and well organized group.

One of the notable features of the Mishawaka team was the fact that it carried no outstanding star. Most of the honors were shared. Some of the seniors whose graduation will again puncture the line-up are Henry Buraczewski, John Kopsea, Louis Makielski, George Marzotto, Rudolph Meuninck, George Miukluk, Donald Moore, and Van Norris.

Led by Marzotto and Miukluk, the Maroon cagers initiated their season on home ground by defeating Lakeville with a lop-sided score, 36 to 13. Marzotto and Miukluk tied for top scoring honors, while Plummer of Lakeville was high man for the visitors.

Three days later the Cavemen traveled to Bourbon and returned with a 22 to 13 victory. Norris teamed with Miukluk, and each contributed seven points to the downfall of their hosts. Accurate passing and precision defense on Mishawaka's part were outstanding.

Third Row: Russell Rhoads, Douglas Marsh, Lee Savage, Amarico Brioli, William Williams, John Atwood, Roland Hesch.

Thirty to 35 was the final score of the Mishawaka-Nappanee game, and Mishawaka was on the short end. A second quarter rally wasn't enough to pass the Bulldogs. Miukluk took the scoring honors with 15 points.

Playing at Goshen, the Redskins handed the Cavemen a 26 to 28 letdown. By virtue of one field goal the Redskins were able to give the Maroons their first conference defeat.

Even home ground wasn't enough of an advantage to stop Central of South Bend from tripping Mishawaka 23 to 29. This game was typical of all Bear-Caveman tilts, for it was close and scrappy.

Finding a weak spot in Riley of South Bend's defense, Mishawaka drove through it to win by a six point margin, 23 to 17. Norris, Mishawaka forward, was high point man, with a total of seven points to his credit.

Holding their own for three quarters, the Maroons were unable to stop thrusts by Carnes and Brown of Muncie in the fourth period, losing 24 to 33. Miukluk's baskets from the center of the floor were unable to sustain the Cavemen even in this last period.

The Maroons found the teams in the southern part of the state too hot for them to hold, and they lost the second game of their Christmas holiday contest. But this time they had improved, for the measure of loss was only one point, 27 to 28. The lead skidded from one side to the other during the entire game, but finally settled upon Southport.

The Mishawaka Cavemen celebrated the New Year by defeating Nappanee, 31 to 29, avenging themselves for a prior defeat. This game was won in the last two minutes of play by a field goal by Miukluk and a free throw by Moore.

Grabbing an early lead through Don Smiley, Rochester held it throughout the game to defeat Mishawaka, 18 to 24. With two minutes to play and the score close, Rochester dropped in a field goal and a foul shot to put the game on ice. Meuninck was high man for Mishawaka.

With both teams playing rough and ready ball, the Maroons weren't ready enough to stop Elkhart. The Blazers eliminated the Maroons from any hope of leading the conference with a 14 to 27 drubbing. It was in this game that "Dago" Moore was injured; and as a result of this loss and this game, it was some time before Mishawaka was able to regain its stride.

Eleven to 40 was the only real lacing that Mishawaka took this year, and that was at the hands of a fine LaPorte team. This defeat was evidently the bottom for the Maroon squad; the course was upward from this game on.

Despite a short lineup caused by injuries, the Maroon cagers showed improvement in the second encounter with Central of South Bend, who managed to eke out a 20 to 27 victory over the home squad by virtue of free throws. Meuninck, with three field goals, was high for Mishawaka.

Riley of South Bend worked its favorite stunt — a last quarter rally — on Mishawaka to the tune of 31 to 32. Using two sets of teams, one with a zone defense, and the other with a fast-break and man-to-man defense, almost proved Riley's undoing. Schweisberger was high with five field goals and one charity toss.

Putting on a top notch performance at Michigan City, the Mishawaka boys dropped their hosts with a double overtime score of 25 to 23. Race horse jump was in order during this game.

"Dutch" Struck illustrates a play requiring a fast "break" to the varsity squad.

Rudy Meuninck attempts to slip a shot through a tight defense.

Tackling the champions of the Eastern Division in a non-conference game, the Maroons trailed the Blazers until the last 49 seconds of play, when Rudy Meuninck dropped in a winning score. Meuninck was on for Mishawaka that night, and fed by his running mates, he gained eight points for his team. Final score — 22-21.

Entertaining a Winamac team, the Maroons sent them home with a 31 to 12 defeat. Fourteen players were used for the Mishawaka victory. Top scoring honors went to Kelley with a total of nine points to his credit.

Led by Norris, the Maroon cagers matched baskets with Washington of South Bend to tie up the score at the end of the game at 32 all. The first overtime went scoreless, and in the second overtime, Kovatch of Washington pulled his team out of danger with a lay-in. Norris gathered in five buckets for his unit.

Sparked by F. Good and Miukluk, the Caveman squad downed a traveling group of New Carlisle Tigers 35 to 20. Although Davenport of New Carlisle kept his team in the running with center court shots, he was not able to outscore both Good and Miukluk, who garnered six field goals apiece.

Caught by a last minute rally, the Mishawaka squad dropped their last scheduled game to Culver 33 to 35. Culver came up with a last minute goal to tie up the score and then in the overtime dropped in a winning score.

Cavemen Fight To Finals In Tournament

Receiving the poorest pairing in the tournament, Mishawaka proceeded to lick everybody in sight, except Washington of South Bend, who took the Cavemen in the finals. The tournament was one of the most thrilling staged here in many years, as all the dope buckets were upset early in the tourney, Mishawaka doing her share along this line.

Matching with Greene Township for one half, the Maroon basketeers put on the pressure for the second half to win their first game of the sectional tournament, 37 to 23. Mishawaka's passing attack threw Greene Township off in the second half.

Coming back that evening, Mishawaka proceeded to take things in their own hands, and in the second half whipped Lakeville, 35 to 29. Miukluk and Kelley contributed heavily to the Mishawaka scoring column by putting in 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Gaining the lead and keeping it, Mishawaka stopped New Carlisle, 33 to 25. Feeding the two forwards, Norris and Schweisberger, the Maroons outspeeded the Tiger unit. Every one of the eligible Maroon men was used, with Norris high.

Before the final game was one quarter old, it was easily discernible that the Mishawaka boys had made up their minds that they would either beat Washington of South Bend or would show them a real ball game. After the game, Washington knew that they had played against a tough opponent. Although they stayed in the running until the last minute of play, the host unit was unable to stop the offense of the South Bend boys. Fighting with their backs to the wall, the Mishawaka cagers would pierce the Washington defense time and again, only to find that the score had been hoisted up a notch or two by the Panther crew, who were feeding the ball to their ace, Bagarus. The Panthers came out on top with a score of 26 to 32, thus winning the sectional championship.

Reserves Win Ten Out of Seventeen

A reserve team composed entirely of sophomores, won ten of their games and lost only seven. As many thrillers and hard-fought games were played in this preliminary league as were fought in the varsity tilts.

Record for the highest percentage of games won went to the freshman basketball squad, for they won 15 of their 18 starts. Their opponents were composed of county second teams, local fives, and other freshman squads.

Three seasons of successful sports ventures can be attributed to the coaching abilities of Walter Thurston, track coach, Russell Arndt, football coach, and Raymond Struck, new to the basketball division this year.

TRACK SQUAD STARTS 1938 SEASON WITH SPEEDY VETERANS

The shot starts on a journey of perhaps 40 feet, put by George Miukluk.

Scarcely missing the bar, Charles Prahl goes over on one of his "high" high jumps.

The crack of the gun starts these dashmen on a speedy race.

At the opening of the 1938 track season, Coach Walter Thurston found that he was without the services of Robert Evans, one of the best milers Mishawaka has produced; Leonard Powell, the fastest hurdler to wear Maroon colors; Zane Hollingsworth, a fine dash man; Robert Davis, who put the shot 46 feet at a throw; and Dudley Picking, a 440 man.

He had returning, however, several experienced dash men: in the 100 yard and 220 dashes for the Maroon squad this year are Jay Gibson, Paul Knupp, and Troy Williams; and such men as Walter Ciszczon, George Miukluk, and Thomas O'Dell run the 440 yard event.

Arthur Beyer and Rudolph Lambert, who have won their letters on the Cross Country team, have taken part in the half mile event; William Heintzberger and Lewis Manuwal, both letter men, hold down jobs on the mile run.

James Boehnlein, Forrest Good, Lester Powell, and Richard Steele, all beginning men, perform in the high and low hurdles department.

Shot putting is the spot where no veteran is present this year, but Roy Bolen and Walter Jasiewicz will do some putting here.

A wealth of material is in the relay teams, for most of the men here are letter men: Jay Gibson, Forrest Good, Paul Knupp, and Troy Williams make up the half mile relay; while Walter Ciszczon, Rudolph Lambert, Lewis Manuwal, George Miukluk, and Thomas O'Dell run the mile relay.

The pole vaulting event has been strong again this year, for the same men as last year are back: Thomas Daffron, Rudolph Meuninck, Van Norris, and Robert Schweisberger. The broad jump has the same potentialities with Joseph Cosenza and Fred Bubb back.

Mishawaka has already started her season by placing sixth in a field of nineteen schools — Hammond won — at the Gary Invitational, by stepping over to LaPorte and mopping up with a lopsided win, and by coming in a close third behind Horace Mann and Hammond in a home meet on April 16.

1938 Schedule

April 9 - - - - - - Dual Meet at LaPorte
April 16 - Hammond, Horace Mann, Fort Wayne, Mishawaka at Mishawaka
April 20 - - - Dual Meet, Elkhart, Mishawaka at Elkhart
April 23 - Triangular Meet, Central (SB), Riley (SB), Mishawaka at South Bend
April 30 - - - - - Kokomo Relays at Kokomo
May 7 - - - Conference Meet at South Bend
May 14 - - - - - Sectional Meet at Mishawaka
May 21 - - - - State Track Meet at Indianapolis

MAROON HARRIERS WIN SEVEN OUT OF NINE STARTS

With an experienced squad held over from last year, the Mishawaka Cross Country team won all but two of the meets on their 1937 fall schedule. Hammond High School of Gary was the only school that was able to compete effectively with the Mishawaka speed.

The cross-country team lines up for a jaunt around the cinder path.

Certainly not "track" weather! In the first heavy snowfall these milers start the conference race at Eberhart Golf Course.

Victorious in every long distance race, Lewis Manuwal breaks the tape far ahead of the other runners.

Opening the season against Elkhart, October 6, the Maroon squad outstepped the Blue Blazers 33 to 22. The first six places were counted off in the respective order of Manuwal, Beyer, Williams, of Elkhart, Heintzberger, Darr of Elkhart, and Lambert.

In the next meet, Mishawaka definitely outclassed Roosevelt High School of East Chicago, 45 to 15. Six of the first places were marked off in Mishawaka's favor, before a Roosevelt man crossed the final marker. Manuwal and Beyer finished almost together in 11:03 and 11:03½, with Heintzberger, Lambert, Boehnlein, and Wauters trailing them for respective positions.

The Maroons raced away from Niles to capture four of the six top positions, thus winning a 43 to 33 victory. The time, 10:20, was the fastest run up to this meet.

Froebel, Gary, was the next to lag behind the Maroons, 39 to 16. Dominating the first positions, Manuwal, Beyer, and Heintzberger came in within one-half second of each other.

Manuwal, who had won first place in all but one of his meets, was missing from the second race with Elkhart. Beyer came forward to take first place; Heintzberger, second; and Lambert, fifth, to win 30 to 25, and thus to add the fifth straight victory to the Mishawaka scorebooks.

North Side of Fort Wayne was the sixth victim to fall to the fleet feet of the local harriers. The Maroons outdid themselves on this day by setting a new record, 9:20. By virtue of Manuwal and Beyer's setting this record, Heintzberger's taking third at 9:57, and Lambert's taking fifth, the Cavemen came home with a 35 to 20 victory.

Entering a triangular meet with Hammond and Horace Mann of Gary, Mishawaka came out in the middle position, with Hammond winning and Horace Mann bringing up the rear.

In the conference meet, Hammond took first and Mishawaka second, but Hammond was able to do this only by taking a large number of supporting positions. Manuwal again took first in 10:50, with Heintzberger close behind in second spot. Forty-nine to 37 was the final count for Hammond.

Coach Walter Thurston will develop the understudies in order to build up a squad as fast as this one, and as successful, to replace these seniors: Arthur Beyer, Louis Manuwal, and Worthy Rowe. Bolstering the Mishawaka stock were James Boehnlein, James Borror, Donald Karnes, Wilford Walters, and Andrew Wauters.

RACQUETEERS GAIN EXPERIENCE

Not until the fourth match last fall, which was at LaPorte, did the Mishawaka quartet of racqueteers move into the scoring column. The first three meets at Nappanee, Elkhart, and Michigan City were victories for the Maroons' opponents. Although plenty of fight was present, inexperience held the squad to a 4 to 1 loss at LaPorte.

In the set with Riley, South Bend, the score was close, with Doutel and Lowman contributing a point each. Riley defeated Mishawaka, 3 to 2.

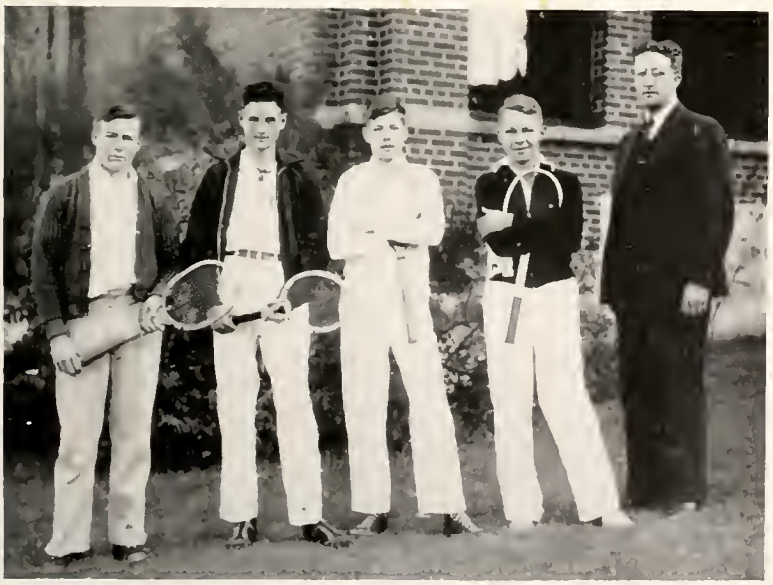
When the Mishawaka foursome won, they did a good job of it. Lowman, Doutel, and Kyle, playing in respective positions, took all the matches to finish with a 5 to 0 lead, against Washington, South Bend.

Winning a singles and a doubles, the Maroons ended on the short end of a 2 to 3 count against Goshen.

A start and a loss against Central, South Bend, completed the season. Central succeeded in stepping in front with a 4 to 1 victory.

Records show that the team improved throughout the season. Since the team is intact for next fall, the experience gained will help the Maroons to win their share of games this season.

Jack Lowman, Francis Pedrotty, Robert Kyle, and Fred Doutel, coached by Mr. Harry Hatcher, wield the racquets for the tennis team.



GAMES, ACHIEVEMENTS, FUN FOR G. A. A.

We double dare you to join G. A. A.
We double dare you to come out and play.
Put on your gym clothes and let's get friendly.
Don't be a scare cat, say what do you care?
Can't you take a dare?

We double dare you to get on a team.
We double dare you to work up some steam.
And if that look in your eyes means what we think it does,
We double dare you to fall in line with us.
We double dare you!

These are the officers of the G. A. A.: Grace Reed, president; Florence Harrington, treasurer; Marian Kirkpatrick, secretary; and Athalene Haney, vice-president.

Justly proud of their victory, is this group of junior girls who captured the volleyball championship.

If you have heard this tune hummed by girls in the halls, you now know what they were thinking. With a year filled with fun and new adventures, a song seems to be the answer to all members of the Girls' Athletic Association.

The club's activities were under the leadership of Grace Reed, president; Athalene Haney, vice-president; Marian Kirkpatrick, secretary; and Florence Harrington, treasurer.

At the beginning of the school year all of the girls interested in the G. A. A. activities hiked to the hills, to become acquainted with new friends and the new physical education instructor, Miss Jane Brown. Miss Brown taught the girls songs, and it was fun to harmonize. After the wiener roast, the girls sat around the camp fire telling funny and spooky stories.

This year, our girls have been guests at two play days, which were, as always, filled with fun and new friends. The Lakeville play day was a program made up entirely of fall sports. Our representatives played soccer, speedball, volleyring, and volleyball. The Plymouth play day, held in the winter, stressed basketball.

One of the social functions of the year was the Thanksgiving party. The evening was spent in dancing to the music of Jimmy Bock's orchestra. One of the features of the evening was a "pie walk"; the lucky partners that won received a pumpkin pie. After refreshments and a few songs, the girls called it a perfect evening.

In March, the Girls' Athletic Association sponsored The Roller Mixer at the Ski-Hi Skating Rink, in South Bend. The decorating was carried out in white and green and different contests helped the guests to become acquainted.

The freshman girls who captured the speedball title under the captainship of Irene Haney.

Practice makes perfect as these junior girls found out by winning the basketball tournament.

All of the girls have three objectives to work for in G. A. A. They take part in organized and unorganized activities, and achievement tests. The organized activities are under the supervision of Miss Brown. Some of these activities are speedball, volleyball, basketball, volleyring, indoor, and bowling, a new activity this year. Every Thursday night the girls interested in bowling receive instruction under the direction of Miss Brown.

The unorganized activities include hiking, skating, walking, bicycling, ping pong, and swimming. A girl may receive five points, if she has taken part in an unorganized activity for six hours during the past six weeks' period.

Achievement tests are given three times each semester. They include tennis, bowling, tumbling, golf, and clogging. A girl receives ten points for every test she passes.

The freshman girls proved themselves victors in speedball. Irene Haney and her teammates won the honors. This winning team was composed of Doris Barr, Helen Buraczewski, Alice Collins, Betty Kizer, Norma Moore, Eleanor Sebetich, Anna Lee Thompson, Wanda Utterback, Kate Van Dusen, and Mary Lou Wylie.

The junior girls captured both volleyball and basketball championships. Anne Van Durman's team won all honors for volleyball. Other members of her team were Jennie Braeckelaere, Marie Gherardi, Anna Johnson, Edra Kemper, Martha Landuyt, Gladys Macready, and Rosemary Nicolini. The winning basketball team, captained by Jennie Braeckelaere, consisted of Athalene Haney, Patricia Herron, Geraldine John, Anna Johnson, Edra Kemper, Magdolyn Kopsea, Margaret Markanich, Rosemary Nicolini, and Anne Van Durman. Each girl who played on a victorious team received ten points.

The awards that are earned by the girls consist of the numeral, the letter, and the wall plaque, for 150 points, 250 points, and 350 points, respectively. This year the plaques will be awarded to the girls at the State Play Day held at Huntington. The girls receiving the plaques are as follows: Anna Blasko, Patricia Herron, Geraldine John, Anna Johnson, Edra Kemper, Magdolyn Kopsea, Gladys Macready, Margaret Markanich, and Anne Van Durman.

The girls that earned numerals this year are Yolanda Cerri, Inez Ciavatti, Doris Claffey, Elizabeth Ganser, Marie Gherardi, Florence Harrington, Doris Isaacson, Martha Landuyt, Phyllis Long, Catherine Mickels, Ethel Miller, Eunice Miller, Norma Lee Moore, Betty Quier, Lois Sanders, Anna Stafford, Dorothy Tackels, Wanda Utterback, and Anna Mae Weinkauf.

The girls that received their letters are Wanda Bender, Marie Brumbaugh, Dorothy De Cloedt, Arlene Dodds, Elizabeth Ganser, Marie Gherardi, Frances Haughton, Patricia Herron, Maxine Hershberger, Maxine Housand, Geraldine John, Mary Kedik, Edra Kemper, Marian Kirkpatrick, Martha Landuyt, Dorothy Logan, Gladys Macready, Margaret Markanich, Anna Mae Miller, Rosemary Nicolini, and Anne Van Durman.

I. A. A. AFFORDS NOON HOUR SPORTS

The Boys' Intramural Athletic Association enables the boys of Mishawaka High School who are not of varsity caliber to participate in their favorite sports. Through this club basketball, passball, volleyball, and softball leagues are organized.

Mr. Frank M. Steele, athletic director, prepares schedules and obtains referees for these games which are played mostly during the noon hour.

In the passball league Libero Baldoni's team won the championship.

Clinton Yazel's team captured the upperclassmen's volleyball league, while the underclassmen's league was won by Bernard Hughes's team.

Primo Fanti's team won the basketball championship by defeating teams led by Ciszczon, Stackman, Baugher, and Truckowski. Those on Fanti's team were Primo Fanti, John Ballatore, George Gherardi, Dante Canarecci, William Squadroni, and Joe Ferrari.

The seniors won the interclass tournament by defeating the freshmen, 21 to 7, in the first round and then won from the sophomores, 25 to 12. On the senior team were "Bill" Funk, "Bill" Fore, Robert Daffron, "Bob" Hayes, Jack Hakes, Auburn Herron, Franklin Hatch, "Bud" Miexel, and "Bob" Eberhardt.

Fred Buda, Guerino Giacomini, Ugo Frisoni, William Squadroni, Libero Baldoni, Alfred Vannoni, Henry Ferrettie, Dante Canarecci, and Primo Fanti make up the champion passball team in the Intramural League.

Robert Daffrom, president; Ugo Frisoni, vice-president; and Alfred Vannoni, secretary, officers of the Intramural Athletic Association, are responsible for the noon sports activities.

The senior basketball team had a victorious season defeating the underclassmen to gain their position.

Emphasis ON ACTIVITIES AND SERVICE

Extra-curricular activities — the highlight of every student's opportunities for development of interesting, beneficial, and friendly experiences!

Musical organizations play an active part in this development. Members of the band and other musical groups have been exposed to many memorable experiences.

Other departments also highlight the opportunities for outside fun by offering clubs which students may join.—And so, the Camera Club.

A chance for self expression and opinion is offered by the speech activities. This year Thomas O'Dell won the County Tuberculosis Speech Contest.

Dramatic productions never fail to bring great enjoyment to both the members of their casts and their audiences. Newcomers to this group this year were the original amateur hour with its entertaining contestants; also, a melodrama.

What would a school year be without dances to drive away dull care? Jimmy Bock and His Pieces of Eight were the perfect answer!

Thus, emphasis on activities develops personality.

Board of Control Keeps Activities Solvent

For 17 years, representatives of faculty and student organizations have composed the Board of Control, the central financial board of the school. Careful budgeting and discreet expenditures have fostered the traditions which have kept virtually every club and activity solvent.

This year a reorganization cut the membership to 12 members: six teachers; the senior class president, secretary, and treasurer; the junior class president and treasurer; and the sophomore class treasurer compose the board. Mr. Harry H. Hatcher is president; Mr. Roy A. Broman, comptroller; Harold Coleman, vice-president; and Wilma Seigler, secretary.

REFLECTOR OF SCHOOL LIFE IS THE ALLTOLD

Busy people, these, writing, inquiring, interviewing, scooping their way through their junior and senior years. Here they are, putting the finishing touches on their Alltold stories.

Their holidays were few, for reporting is a full-time occupation, but they captured for the printed page the big moments during the year.

Their drives were successful. One staff used a special Western Union delivery service, the other employed a ventriloquist. There was a scramble for variety. As a result, such features as "Me and Jimmie Fidler", "Chit and Chat", "Editor's Peg", "The Student Speaks", and "Sophresh" were developed.

Although but a little group, fourteen in all, the first semester staff exceeded all previous subscription drives. Harold Coleman was editor in chief; Ruth Ann Brechtel, associate editor; James Bock, managing editor; Victoria Siegenthaler, news editor; and Virginia McMillan, business manager.

An ambitious and cooperative second semester staff conducted surveys, sought student opinion, and probed the deeper problems of school life. Directing the staff were Erma Jane Hahn, editor in chief; Mary Jane Edgar, associate editor; Betty Weinkauf, managing editor; Harry Magrane, news editor; and Frederick Doutel, business manager.

The first semester Alltold staff, consisting of only 14 members, is proud of its accomolishments in the subscription campaign and of its change in page make-up.

The second semester staff boasts an entertaining campaign program, and extensive research work to complete a successful publication program.

TODAY—TOMORROW—FOREVER THE MISKODEED

Pictures everywhere — snapshots, informal poses, candid shots, shadows on a tower in the moonlight—the Miskodeed of 1938!

During the year Herbert Schalliol, editor in chief, with Ruth Ann Brechtel and Erma Jane Hahn, associate editors, have been retouching the features of the year.

Virginia McMillan, Robert Goldstein, and Walter May of the photography department left no stones unturned to make this year's book picturesque and colorful.

A few notes to aid the memory were added by the editorial staff: Eugenia Groff, Luella Lundquist, Victoria Siegenthaler and Don Smith.

The Miskodeed now comes out of the dark room to release these positive proofs of an active school year.

The circulation staff under the direction of Richard Lenhard, the dance committee with Gifford Hampton as chairman, and Harold Coleman, business manager, contributed much to the financial success of the annual. The senior section and the sports activity kept Eugenia Groff, Louis Makielski, and Donald Smith busy.

"It's Latin to them"—Mercurius staff members: Herbert Barnes, editor; Evelyn Sarkisian and John Schindler, joke editors; and Barbara Lahr, circulation manager.

LATIN STEPS OUT WITH MERCURIUS

Those old comrades, Latin and scholars, are still clinging to the ghosts of days gone by. Each year the Mercurius adapts subject matter which reflects the customs of the ancient empires to the modern student angle. Members of the Latin V and VI classes delved into the archives and discovered many interesting facts. The Christmas issue was a classic in its flare of historical notes, timely items, and humor.

The Speech Club officers for the first semester put their heads together to discuss plans.

Are these members of the Drama Club destined to be the future Garbos or Katherine Cornells? Here are shown the girls of the group practicing facial expressions, with Luella Lundquist and Victoria Siegenthaler, officers.

"SPEECH IS SILVER" WITH THE SPEECH CLUB

Not of extemporaneous programs, parties, and the richly decorated "Hard Times Hop" only does the Speech Club boast. It introduced the Eureka Jubilee Singers and the Lombards, who brought a variety of songs, dances, and imitations to general assemblies.

Other points of interest, the speaking contests, were brought into full swing this spring. Thomas O'Dell captured the county title in the Anti-Tuberculosis League Contest. Poetry speaking, discussion, speech and extemporaneous contests made a program of achievements for club members and the school.

The club was guided this year by Louis Makielski and Robert Doxtator, presidents; Richard Lenhard and Louis Makielski, vice-presidents; Mary Lang and Thomas O'Dell, secretaries; and Sara Gerard, treasurer.

THE DRAMA CLUB SEEKS LIGHTS FOR STARS

In the spotlight is a little group of ambitious actors who believed that "all the world's a stage" —the Drama Club.

Since "many a star has blushed unseen," this little group decided to act quickly lest they too remain unseen.

Attention was directed to developing dramatic ability by a study of the realm behind the footlights.

SPEECH CLUB PRESENTS THREE-ACT THRILLER

Entertainment became eccentric with the Speech Club's three-act thriller, "Hobgoblin House" by Jay Tobias. After a series of realistic tryouts, Mr. James McFadden assembled a cast of extraordinary characters.

Robert Goldstein interpreted the leading role of the old crippled caretaker, Darius Krupp. Other roles were played by Robert Doxtator, Jack Hakes, Harry Magrane, Harold Stein, Dick Tramer, Mary Frances Kabel, Dorothy McLaughlin, Louisa Shoemaker, Victoria Siegenthaler, Helen Ward, and Lillian Weinkauf.

Unicameral legislature might be the problem these debaters are discussing, since this was the subject for the year.

DEBATERS ARGUE PROS AND CONS OF UNICAMERALISM

"Time up, the big speech ends,
Both teams fought hard, they part as friends."

—And so, like clean sports, debating promotes good fellowship.

This year the Maroon wranglers enjoyed a lively season of discussions, tournaments, and one conference contest. The subject was "Unicameralism vs. Bicameralism."

Eight debaters were admitted to the varsity teams this year. On the affirmative side were Richard Lenhard, Thomas O'Dell, Victoria Siegenthaelr, and Jo Ann Walsh; on the negative, Richard Deardorff, Robert Doxtator, Robert Goldstein, and Harold Stein. Both teams represented Mishawaka in the annual district conference held at LaPorte in February.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT DEVELOPS SPECIAL TALENTS

Harmony, symphony, and rhythm, all are produced in the Music Department.

Foremost of the vocalists is the Madrigal Club, a group of ten singers, which makes many public appearances under the direction of Miss Lucine Jones.

Late in February, the girls' sextette made its second appearance before the microphone at the South Bend Tribune Broadcasting Station. Some of the high notes of the program were a vocal solo by Dale Huston, and piano and violin selections by Wade Parks and Rocco Germano, respectively.

A variety of compositions featuring the choir, sextette, glee club, and orchestra made up one of the activities of National Music Week, the annual Spring Concert. A sonata combining the tones of violins and piano, and a large chorus "Marching Men", by Henry Hadley, was the outstanding number of an elaborate program.

Twenty-five members of the Music Department were awarded distinctive positions in the district orchestra and chorus at the Northern Indiana State Teachers' Association held at South Bend, last October.

Selected songsters are these members of the Madrigal Club: Jean Pullman, Mary Frances Kabel, Dale Huston, Peggy Wilklow, Gloriana Willett, Grace Reed, Woods Pepperman, Glenn Thompson, Dick Klaer, and Wayne Ward.

The orchestra never fails to provide the musical setting at the various plays presented by the school.

The A Capella Choir with its keynotes that never fail to please at the Spring Concert and at their beautiful Christmas program.

Dale Huston, choir soloist, and Mary Ella Peak can easily hit the high notes.

All the ideas for the Art Club come from these four officers: Marian Peik, president; Elma Rose Petro, vice-president; Rosa Belle Weikel, secretary-treasurer; Mary Frances Kabel, program chairman.

A CAPELLA CHOIR BRINGS RAYS OF CHRISTMAS

An impressive candlelight processional created the proper atmosphere for the A Capella Choir's Christmas program this year.

A mixture of mellow carols, hymns, and solos, directed by Miss Lucine Jones, reflected the Yuletide spirit. While shepherds and virgins posed scenes of the Nativity, the 39 singers caroled the ancient melodies. The beautiful reproduction of the window of St. John The Divine Cathedral, New York City, was used again as the effective background for the performance.

"Silent Night" was the impressive benediction sung by the A Capella Choir joined by the alumni choir in the balcony.

The choir elected Mary Frances Kabel, president; Max MacMillan, treasurer; Grace Reed, secretary; and Dick Klaer, robe chairman.

VARIETY OF TALENT USED BY THE ART CLUB

An active program committee projected a variety of activities into the Art Club calendar. One of the high spots was an illustrated account of a tour of the island of Bali by Miss Helen Amos. She showed examples of art work which she had purchased. The club also included trips to local art exhibits.

Besides the loftier themes, the Art Club, under Miss Alice Baker, made way for social activities this year.

"They'd rather lead a band" — baton twirlers, Dorothy Breunlin, Blaine Gamble, Joan Eberhart, and Evelyn Ritter.

BAND STAGES THREE PUBLIC CONCERTS

"While thousands cheer" the band stages nocturnal exhibitions on the gridiron and lends spirit to the rooters of the hardwood. And besides, three brilliant public concerts were played under the versatile director, Max Kraning.

Band awards for 1938 were as follows: Four-year sweaters: James Bock, Lois Chandler, Harold Coleman, Dick Deardorff, Betty Ehrmin, Robert Fox, Erma Jane Hahn, Paul Reese, Evelyn Ritter, Winston Sack, Richard Smith, and Adolph Walker.

Three-year letters: Robert Abele, Floyd Alleman, Dorothy Breunlin, Walter Doeringsfeld, Fred Doutel, Blaine Gamble, Ralph Kester, Retha Martin, Elwood May, Walter May, John Schindler, Eldon Sheets, Virginia Walker, and Wayne Zeller. Thirty students received gold pins as awards for two years' membership in band.

N. H. S. GIVES RECOGNITION TO LEADERS

Studies in service, leadership, character, and scholarship are the members of the National Honor Society.

Throughout the ten years of its existence, this society has recognized the achievements of ambitious upperclassmen. For a junior or senior to hear himself called from the audience of the momentous assembly to join the elect on the stage is ever an honor that never loses its thrill.

Thomas O'Dell has been president; Herbert Barnes, vice-president; and Mary Frances Kabel, secretary-treasurer.

SCHOLARSHIP IS THE KEY TO THE H. S. S.

Conferring honor upon juniors and seniors is not enough for the Honorary Scholastic Society; sophomores with very high scholarship are admitted to associate membership. Eleven years ago, Mr. Frank W. Chapman organized this society to recognize scholars of the three upper classes. It is one of our finest traditions.

James Bock is president; Herbert Barnes, vice-president; and Erma Jane Hahn, secretary-treasurer.

QUILL AND SCROLL HONORS DEPENDABLE JOURNALISTS

Assuming the responsibility of seeking and presenting the truth, members of two Alltold staffs and the Miskodeed staff earned the honor of membership in the Quill and Scroll, international honor society for high school journalists. They wear the symbol of the painstaking efforts of the scribes of old: the quill for meticulous care required in turning thoughts into proper language, and the scroll for permanence of well written records.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB SERVES MARTHA WASHINGTON TEA

A Thanksgiving party, a skating frolic, and after that a tea! Not an ordinary tea, but a Martha Washington affair with crossed flags for decoration; a red, white, and blue color scheme; dainty silhouette invitations; and serving maidens in colonial costumes! Thus, the Home Economics Club honored the mothers of its members and the women of the faculty in February.

From tea and cakes to style show, the club is "tops" with girls and Miss Galena Kibby, sponsor.

ENGINEERING CLUB DESIGNS AND BUILDS

Although "all are architects of fate", not all can build with their hands.

Members of the Engineering Club have shown considerable dexterity in the projects they undertook this year. Led by Mr. Harold Goppert, the boys have been especially active designing and building model airplanes, heating equipment, and model fixtures.

Darrol Fry, president; and Robert Abele, secretary-treasurer, were the leaders of the club this year.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS POSSESS KEYS TO WO-HE-LO

Work, Health, and Love—aims of the Camp Fire Girls.

Busy as bees, the girls, under the leadership of Miss Wilma Rea, Mishawaka Camp Fire executive, plunged into social life with a Christmas dance, published a newsy paper, and developed their outdoor sports. These activities answer for work and health.

As for love—the child patients of Healthwin Hospital are richer for their unique and amusing presents—vegetable dolls.

SCOUT CLUB SURVEYS THE PROFESSIONS

One of the finest ideals is service, an ideal which belongs to the Scout Club.

Besides performing daily good deeds, the Scouts cooperate with the Girl Reserves each year to spread Christmas cheer among destitute citizens of the community. Baskets of food and clothing are gathered and distributed.

Vocational guidance was the theme of meetings throughout the year. Speakers representing a wide range of professions were secured to aid the Scouts in deciding their own work.

MASTER HI-Y SALESMEN HIT A NEW HIGH

Ambition stirred the Hi-Y this year to "hi"-gher levels! The special programs for the annual Central-Mishawaka football classic surpassed former ones in the amount of advertising space subscribed, and they were all sold before the game began.

The first of April was the date for merry-making at the Sweater Hop sponsored by the club. New maroon and white sweaters appeared at the dance, and April fools abounded.

BY THEIR SWEATERS THEY ARE KNOWN

In snowy-white sweaters with blue emblems, the Girl Reserves put their triangular motive into action with Miss Esther Nugent as sponsor.

An impressive candle ceremony, in October; a gay Christmas party, in December; a Valentine carnival, in February; and the S. O. S. (Sail Or Swing) dance, in April, were high points on the spiritual and social sides of the triangle.

THE BIG BROADCAST OF 1938 BY THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

"Tops" in entertainment this year was the city-wide amateur hour which replaced the former annual Commercial Club play.

Careful planning and discriminating eliminations gave the performance the smoothness of a Major Bowes program. Much unsuspected talent appeared at the preliminaries, and many contestants displayed excellent showmanship. Winners in the finals were Betty Haslett and Lois Chandler, with a flute and a clarinet solo respectively. Lucy Buda received third prize for her versatile song and dance.

The amateur hour and its financial success provided the ways and means for the annual spring banquet, the climax of the year's activities. This is an elaborate affair when honors and awards are bestowed upon the outstanding bookkeepers, stenographers, and typists of the Commercial Department. The distinctions are based upon a series of tests given early in May.

Following the precedent of former years, the programs of the regular meetings have provided speakers on the serious and practical matters of the business world. The social element was not overlooked: music, solo dancing, and readings introduced the lighter vein.

Marvin Baldwin, president; Maxine Hershberger, vice-president; and Eugenia Groff, secretary, were the capable directors, and Miss Ruth Ann Foulke was the sponsor, who kept the club at a high level of achievement throughout the year.

Wanda Marie Beehler proved herself one of the skilled typists of the advanced section.

With ideas focused on commercial developments, Marvin Baldwin, as president; Maxine Hershberger, vice-president; and Eugenia Groff, secretary-treasurer, directed the Commercial Club's activity.

Mary Dutoi, who made outstanding records in shorthand early in the year.

COMMERCIAL "HI-LITES" OFFERS FUN AND HARD WORK

It is the special privilege of the Commercial Hi-Lites to gather all of the multi-colored threads of the department and to weave them into a meaningful pattern.

This newspaper was published every term by members chosen from volunteers of all Commercial Department classes. It contained choice bits of news concerning coming events, records of past accomplishments, features, and current gossip. Its chief purpose is to train its staff in mimeographing and interviewing with a lot of fun and hard work. The outgrowth of the publication is the complete picture of an exceedingly active department.

Wanda Marie Beehler was the editor in chief. Her staff included Erma Jane Hahn, news editor; Betty Hughes, feature editor; Ruth Ann Brechtel, circulation manager; and Eugenia Groff, art editor.

Business-minded girls interested in editing the commercial newspaper, the Commercial Hi-Lites.

Directing the activities of the scientific-minded members of the Science Club were Ward Correll, secretary-treasurer; Helen Vollmer, president; Herbert Barnes, vice-president; and Dorothy Logan, sergeant-at-arms.

JUNIOR ACADEMY HONORS SCIENCE CLUB EXHIBITS

From a darkened background of formulas, mathematics, and nature, emerges a picture of industry, initiative, and research. It is the Science Club.

Several members of the club displayed industry and initiative by preparing an exhibition of water softeners, alpha-ray tracks, and precious stones for the Junior Academy of Science in North Manchester. This exhibit was so highly praised that the American Academy for the Advancement of Science requested it for its international convention, at Indianapolis.

Robert Bennett, a sophomore, was one of the two student speakers appearing on the Junior Academy program.

Many research projects were conducted by the chemistry division led by Justin Arata, chairman, and Betty Weinkauf, secretary. Walter Doeringsfeld succeeded in growing crystals.

The physics section, led by Vern Lung and Benjamin Rice, devised a black lamp. The officers were Richard Wachs, chairman; Vern Lung, secretary.

The dissection of a kid was a notable accomplishment in the biological field. Blaine Gamble, chairman, and Mildred Vollmer, secretary, were in charge of meetings this year.

CAMERA CLUB FEATURES DEVELOPING AND PRINTING

Last fall student photographers were busy catching M. H. S. history in the making. Members of the Camera Club, guided by Mr. Wallace Miner, aided the Miskodeed considerably with its picture burdens. Their success is evident on some of the pages of this book.

Much of the club's activities were immersed in chemistry. The members tried their luck at developing, printing, and "fixing" the films in solutions of their own making.

HALL GUIDES SERVE AS STUDENT HOSTESSES

Official hostesses are the Hall Guides. These girls are chosen for their pleasing personalities and for their ability to handle varied situations graciously.

They greet visitors and conduct them to the interesting points of our school, meet business men and women and direct them to the offices, care for students who need any kind of help, aid teachers, and run errands. They are a valuable service to all teachers, students, and friends.

The Hall Guides are chosen and directed by Miss Jean Cravens, Dean of Girls.

With service as their keynote, these girls acted as hall guides during the year: Elizabeth Ganser, Julia Rohleder, Barbara Lahr, Lucile Corlette, Erma Jane Hahn, Ruth Stoner, Wilma Seigler, Mary Jane Edgar, Betty Jane Beron, Mary Lang, and Mary Jane Brewer.

"This way please"—always ready to guide you, are these members of the Ushers' Club.

READY FOR SERVICE—IT'S THE USHERS' CLUB

The ushers are always on hand and ready for service. Under the direction of Mr. Armin Amos, these fellows serve at all football and basketball games. They collect tickets and pass out programs at the school plays, concerts, and special entertainments in the auditorium.

Their two heaviest duties are seating fans in the Notre Dame stadium for the Mishawaka-Central football game, and finding places for parents and friends at the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

Robert Daffron is captain of the Ushers' Club.
